

Prof. Dr. Muhammad Abdulgafoor Ahmed Alkataan

DoB: July 1977

Email: moh1977729@gmail.com or
muhammad.abdulgafoor@uoninevah.edu.iq

Phone No.:+9647518608845 and 07753148288

Professor Alkataan has a PhD in Pharmacy/ Molecular Biochemistry and Stem Cell Biology with focus on mitochondrial role in health and diseases. In addition to work mitochondrial genome and ROS/RNS oxidative stress.

Prof. Alkataan was born in Mosul July 29 1977. Received his Ph.D. in pharmacy from Keele University UK in 2018 in addition to his M.Sc. in clinical biochemistry (2006) from College of Medicine University of Mosul and B.Sc. in Pharmacy (1999–2000) from College of Pharmacy University of Mosul. From December 2000 until April 2003, work as a clinical pharmacist for the Iraqi army. From 2006 to 2020 work as staff member at College of Pharmacy - Mosul University's. Currently, He employ by the Ninevah University College of Medicine's Biochemistry Department. Prof. Alkataan represent international Mito-patient organization in Iraq. He supervised 15 postgraduate student (PhD and MSc) and published 61 papers in different international / national journals and conformances. Professor Alkataan participated in writing three books:

Cell Culture Technology

Benefits limitations restrictions and application of guidelines and

Pocket Guide for Early Career Researcher Medical Research Writing in Brief